Lucien X. Lombardo, Ph.D., is Professor Emeritus of Criminal Justice at Old Dominion University. For over 25 years he was Co-Faculty Advisor along with the late Dr. Karen A. Polonko of In Support of Children (ISOC). He and Dr. Karen A. Polonko have taught courses and published widely on violence and children, children's rights and pedagogical practice relating to ending corporal punishment and all forms of child maltreatment and promoting child abuse prevention. Their research has focused on developing interdisciplinary understandings of child abuse prevention. In addition, their detailed research on the implementation of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child garnered Drs. Lombardo and Polonko an opportunity to address the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child. For their advocacy work for children, Dr. Polonko and Dr. Lombardo received the Virginia Governor's Advisory Board Award on Child Abuse and Neglect, and the Lifetime Achievement Award, Center for Human Rights of Children, Loyola University, Chicago.

Dr. Lombardo is currently a member of the board of the Harriet Tubman Center for Justice and Peace, the Southern Cayuga Anne Frank Tree Project, Champions for Children / Prevent Child Abuse Hampton Roads, the National No Hit Zone Committee of APSAC and AVA, the Education Committee of Human Dignity and Humiliation Studies Network. His current work involves integrating human dignity into schools and government agencies including police.
