Jasmyne Nelson is a Licensed Master Social Worker currently practicing as a Medical Social Worker with the Children's Advocacy Resource and Evaluation Service (CARES) at Le Bonheur Children's Hospital. Jasmyne and her team evaluate children who have been victims of abuse or neglect and provide support, risk assessment, and connection with community resources to ensure the safety and health of children. She has a breadth of experience in case management, individual child and family therapy, group facilitation, crisis intervention, and advocacy.

Ms. Nelson has worked in a variety of settings including as a Family Intervention Specialists at Youth Villages in which she engaged in intensive home-based therapy with families and youth with behavioral or emotional challenges. She has also worked in a variety of capacities serving populations with mental illness and homelessness providing group facilitation and life-skills training.