

Veronica Chavez, Psy.D- USC Clinical Assistant Professor of Pediatrics (Clinician Educator) Licensed clinical psychologist and clinical supervisor at Children's Hospital Los Angeles, Project Heal Trauma program. Dr. Chavez has presented at numerous conferences and workshops nationwide on the topic of childhood trauma and it's lasting effects, immigration and it's impact on childhood functioning, children in foster care, cultural implications of trauma, and developmental disabilities. Dr. Chavez has specialized training in trauma focused cognitive behavioral therapy (TF-CBT)