

Angie Boy, DrPH is the Program Manager for prevention and education at the Stephanie V. Blank Center for Safe and Healthy Children at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta. In this role, she is responsible for overseeing the implementation of multiple projects related to child abuse and neglect including child sex trafficking, prevention of child sexual abuse, and mandated reporting of child abuse and neglect. Angie completed her doctoral work at the University of Alabama at Birmingham School of Public Health. Her research centered on the experiences of Latina victims of domestic violence. Dr. Boy has over 15 years of experience in the field of family violence and has a special interest in the impacts of family violence on mothers and their children.